

Elmhurst School for Dance Pre-Vocational Programme Auditions

Love to dance? ...join us!

Find out more about Elmhurst's Saturday ballet, exercise and jazz classes for children who love to dance.

Elmhurst is one of the country's top ballet schools. Based in Birmingham, it enjoys a close relationship with Birmingham Royal Ballet, the country's leading touring classical ballet company.

Every summer the school holds auditions to find boys and girls to join its Saturday Pre-Vocational Programme the following autumn. The auditions provide a chance for young people currently in Academic Years 3, 4 and 5 with a passion for dance to meet Elmhurst's teachers and other children who enjoy moving to music. They are open to children with no formal movement teaching as well as those already taking dance lessons*.

Dance provides an enjoyable way to gain fitness and confidence. These lessons, taken and accompanied by some of Elmhurst's own internationally renowned teachers and musicians, are full of activity and packed with fun!

Visit www.elmhurstdance.co.uk to find out more about the school. If your child is interested in taking part, download an application form from our website and, once completed, send it with your audition fee to Elmhurst. Full details of the auditions will be sent out by post or e-mail.

photos: Elaine Mayson

* Children who already attend dance lessons will only be accepted onto the course with the approval of their current teachers and with their parents' undertaking to continue these classes.

Classes are £8.50* per session; no talented child will be declined a position through lack of funds. * Correct March 2010

Elmhurst School for Dance, 249 Bristol Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham B5 7UH;
telephone: +44 (0) 121 415 2827; b.creaton@elmhurstdance.co.uk; www.elmhurstdance.co.uk